Every Knee Should Bow

Ephesians 6:12 says:

"For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places." 2 Corinthians 10:4 states, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds."

Are there however, and have there been times, when the unseen world and the physical world have melded and both interacted with one another? The Bible has many instances of such occurrences happening.

Two examples can be seen in '2 Kings 6:15-16' and 'Matthew 18:1-3':

"And when the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, an host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said unto him, Alas, my master! how shall we do? And he answered, Fear not: for they that be with us are more than they that be with them. And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha."

"Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, and was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared unto them Moses and Elias talking with him."

There was even a time when God used to walk and talk with man in the garden.

"They heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day."
(Genesis 3:8)

There was a time when the melding of the spiritual and physical worlds, seemed to have been more of an accepted idea.

Of course the devil has done everything he could to try and convince the world that there is no other existence beyond what our five senses can relate. Through Darwinism, humanism, etc. and it would seem especially now through the "bread and circuses" provided by the overwhelming plethora of modern culture, especially modern pop culture entertainment.

In fact if you look up entertainment in most dictionaries, one of the definitions of entertainment is "diversion" and one of the definitions of "diversion" is "something that takes your attention away from something else--Real dictionary. What this all results in is people

"Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God." (Ephesians 4:18)
