

“Remember the former things that were of old: for I am God, and there is none other beside me.”
(Isaiah 46:9)
None Other

With the world growing darker by the day and the forces of antichrist arising with ferocity we would do well to remember it is the Lord who is ultimately in control. Here are just a few verses to help us to remember this and to keep this in mind.

- Remember his wonderful works which he has wrought, his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth. 1 Chronicles 16:12
- Remember thy compassions, O Lord, and thy mercies, for they are from everlasting. Psalms 25:6
- Forasmuch as I have remembered thee on my bed: in the early seasons I have meditated on thee. Psalms 63:6
- I remembered the works of the Lord; for I will remember thy wonders from the beginning. Psalms 77:11
- And they remembered that God was their helper, and the most high God was their redeemer. Psalms 78:35
- As a father pities his children, the Lord pities them that fear him. For he knows our frame: remember that we are dust. Psalms 103:13-14
- Remember his wonderful works that he has done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth. Psalms 105:5
- He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered: the Lord is merciful and compassionate. Psalms 111:4
- For the Lord remembered us in our low estate; for his mercy endures for ever. Psalms 136:23
- I remembered the days of old; and I meditated on all thy doings: yea, I meditated on the works of thine hands. Psalms 143:5
- Remember the former things that were of old: for I am God, and there is none other beside me. Isaiah 46:9
