Reap The Whirlwind

If you are a follower of current events then you will know that the past week has seen a flurry of activity especially in the Middle East where so much of Bible prophecy plays out.

Possibly the most important story of the past week concerns the gains the group ISIS, the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria, have made particularly in Iraq. We have included three articles below concerning this group along with maps to help in understanding the present situation.

Whether this is a false flag scenario to get US troops back into Iraq is uncertain. At this point this would not appear to be the case.

There is an interesting verse in the book of Hosea, chapter eight:

“For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind.”

Is ISIS the whirlwind from the wind (war) sown by mainly the US and the UK?

Interestingly the first war with Iraq led by the US was called Operation Desert Storm, January 1991–28 February 1991

God's Word says to:

“Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.” Galatians 6:7

There has been a tremendous amount of death and destruction sown over the past several years by the powers that are wanting to establish the New World Order, covering a very large area of the globe.

Just to mention that all though we do present articles written by the mainstream we by no means rely on them for in depth truth in reporting. The Bible is the best source by which to judge events.

Millions have gotten off the mainstream news merry-go-round years ago and now just mostly watch it spin.

We have noticed the word “hubris” has been used much more in recent times, especially when it concerns the US and its policies, foreign and domestic.

As the Bible says, it might be better to say promises:

“Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.” Proverbs 16:18

And what about the acronym for this new group, ISIS, traveling like a whirlwind across Syria and Iraq that wants to establish an Islamic caliphate.

You may be aware that Isis was one of the most important gods in the ancient Egyptian pantheon of gods, and figures very prominently in some of the most important elite secret societies in the world today. Isis was part of a trinity that many Biblical researchers believe was an imitation Luciferian trinity of the Holy Trinity of God, and that this imitation trinity which also includes Osiris will figure significantly in the End Time.

According to Wikipedia:

“Isis is a goddess in Ancient Egyptian religious beliefs, whose worship spread throughout the Greco-Roman world. She was worshipped as the ideal mother and wife as well as the patroness of nature and magic. She was the friend of slaves, sinners, artisans and the downtrodden, but she also listened to the prayers of the wealthy, maidens, aristocrats and rulers. Isis is often depicted as the mother of Horus, the hawk-headed god of war and protection (although in some traditions Horus's mother was Hathor). Isis is also known as protector of the dead and goddess of children.

The name Isis means "Throne". Her headdress is a throne. As the personification of the throne, she was an important representation of the pharaoh's power. The pharaoh was depicted as her child, who sat on the throne she provided. Her cult was popular throughout Egypt, but her most important temples were at Behbeit El-Hagar in the Nile delta, and, beginning in the reign with Nectanebo I (380–362 BCE), on the island of Philae in Upper Egypt.

In the typical form of her myth, Isis was the first daughter of Geb, god of the Earth, and Nut, goddess of the Sky, and she was born on the fourth intercalary day. She married her brother, Osiris, and she conceived Horus with him. Isis was instrumental in the resurrection of Osiris when he was murdered by Set. Using her magical skills, she restored his body to life after having gathered the body parts that had been strewn about the earth by Set.”

“For our battle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the world powers of this darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavens.” Ephesians 6:12

“Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth.” Jeremiah 25:32
