They That Understand

A recent poll conducted by Reuters shows that “nearly 15 percent of people worldwide believe the world will end during their lifetime. (2012)

“Whether they think it will come to an end through the hands of God or a natural disaster or a political event, whatever the reason, 1 in 7 think the end of the world is coming,” said Keren Gottfried, research manager at Ipsos Public Affairs, which conducted the poll for Reuters. The figure is 22 percent in the US.

“About 1 in 10 people globally also said they were experiencing fear or anxiety about the impending end of the world in 2012.”

If the poll is correct, then over 600 million people around the world are experiencing fear and anxiety with over 60 million in the US alone. Could this be leading to the fulfillment of Luke 21:26 which we have quoted in previous posts?

These poor people simply do not know the truth that is in God's Word, the Bible, hence our referencing the opening scripture of Daniel 11:33:

“They that understand among the people shall instruct many.”

Another article (2012):

“A Call to Everyone in the World to Send a Letter to the Pope” published by “The Temple Mount and Land of Israel Faithful Movement” is another example of the importance of our need to understand Biblical prophecy, both Old and New Testaments.

It is interesting and informative to note that many of the scriptures quoted by “The Temple Mount and Land of Israel Faithful Movement” in support of their cause, are also used by Christians to show where their Messiah will reign. They are quoting these scriptures to show the need to return the temple artifacts, including the Menorah, which were taken by Titus, from the destruction of the second temple in Jerusalem in 70 AD.

The artifacts were transported to Rome where they now are supposed to reside in the Vatican's almost innumerable archives.

All of this is in preparation for the rebuilding of the Third Temple where the coming Messiah King of Israel will reign.

The Christian Messiah is of course, Jesus Christ. With “The Temple Mount and Land of Israel Faithful Movement”, their Messiah would have to be someone else, since they do not accept Jesus Christ as their Messiah.

The question that remains is, who would be the occupier of this Third Temple? (See our article “The Third Temple” and also the numerous material published under the studies section on this web site concerning the Third Temple.)

“Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God.” (2 Thessalonians 2:3-4)

So the first occupier according to scripture?

Who is he? Son of perdition? The antichrist!
