

“Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write grievousness which they have prescribed; To turn aside the needy from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless!”

(Isaiah 10:1-2)

Turn Aside The Needy From Judgment

The above verses from Isaiah, chapter ten, would certainly seem to fit much of the world situation that exists in today's world. Of course these problems have always existed, but they seem to be glaringly apparent as we watch what is unfolding before our eyes.

Why is this happening? Proverbs 28:5 answers that question for us:

“Evil men understand not judgment.”

Why would they not understand judgment because “having their conscience seared with a hot iron;” (1 Timothy 4:2) they have no feeling for others, no empathy.

And why do these problems seem so glaringly painful and obvious today and is it in fact worse than in the past. 2 Timothy 3:13 tells us that in the last days:

“...evil men and seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived”.

The Bible even cautions us about envying these type of people.

“Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with them. Fret not thyself because of evil [men], neither be thou envious at the wicked; Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose none of his ways.” (Proverbs 23:17, 24:1,19, 3:31)

The dictionary definition of envy is:

“a feeling of discontented or resentful longing aroused by someone else's possessions, qualities, or luck”.

One very good reason not to envy or want to be like these type of people is the very first word in Isaiah, chapter ten, at the top of the page, “Woe”.

The dictionary definition of “woe” is:

“Woe-great sorrow or distress. synonyms: misery, sorrow, distress, wretchedness, sadness, unhappiness, heartache, heartbreak, despondency, despair, depression, regret, gloom, melancholy”.

That is not something to envy!

And in what may be seen as the worst case of envy:

“For he (Pontius Pilot) knew that the chief priests had delivered him (Jesus Christ the Son of God) for envy”. Mark 15:10

The Lord knows what is going on and is keeping track.

“The eyes of the Lord are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they.” Proverbs 15:3, Ecclesiastes 5:80

Concerning the news articles below, we recently wrote a dear friend and commented, “It is becoming an increasing challenge to ascertain what is the truth and what is not in news articles, what is information, what is disinformation, and what is a combination of the two. Our main way of judging a news article is by trying to stand them up against scripture and by the God-given gift of discernment, and prayer.

All the material and revelations by whistle blowers that has come to light recently in the news could be taken and used in a number of ways. Some may think things are finally being exposed and we can fix the problem, or, the system is all so pervasive what is the use of even trying to fix it.

That particular article you mentioned, 'Wake up America FEMA Preparing For The Worst In Region 3-Why?' we are a little dubious. Two main questions, why that area, and who benefits from this information being released. (We decided to post it for your information.)

It seems almost weekly there is something major about to happen. One thing it does seem to do is keep the general public, (at least many of those who are aware something big is about to happen), in a constant state of apprehension and uncertainty. Of course that is one of the reasons why so many will support and back the antichrist...to bring stability back to a very unstable world.
