

“Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.”

(Joel 3:14)

Valley Of Decision

Well, 2013 has turned out to be quite a year with EndTime events unfolding at a faster and swifter pace than any of us have seen in our life times. It would seem that finally millions upon millions of people have been awakened to the fact that the world is in very deep and serious trouble.

To quote from Professor Fumikazu Yoshida of Hokkaido University’s Graduate School of Economics, Economic Journal of Hokkaido University, in one of the articles below,

“The nuclear disaster at the Fukushima Daiichi nuclear power plant is a “multiple disaster” never before experienced in human history [...]”

Other sources say it will not only affect the Pacific Ocean and the Pacific rim countries but because of ocean currents it will also affect the Atlantic Ocean and indeed the entire world.

It is interesting that in Revelation, chapter eight, the second trumpet of tribulation involves the seas, all of which are interconnected.

Remember, Jesus said it would get so bad that:

“except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved.” Matthew 24:22

So, what are we to do? Those of you who follow this site know the answer to that question, but many do not.

Satan in addressing God in Job, chapter two, said:

“Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life.”

It is really coming down to choices.

The Lord is allowing Satan to bring the world to such a point of crisis that it will bring the world to a point of decision.

“Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision.” Joel 3:14

God told the Israelites in Deuteronomy, chapter eleven:

“Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse; A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you this day: And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which ye have not known.”

Jesus told us in Matthew, chapter seven:

“Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat. Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves.”

Our first article below is from the Huffington Post. Concerning the Huffington Post, Wikipedia tells us; “In 2012, The Huffington Post became the first commercially run United States digital media enterprise to win a Pulitzer Prize.”

In July 2012, The Huffington Post was ranked #1 on the 15 Most Popular Political Sites list by eBizMBA Rank. Find The Best states; 43,200,000 read the Huffington Post a month.

You and I may think what we will about the Huffington Post, but it is nevertheless a huge source of information for many millions of people.

The article, written by Zoltan Istvan, who is described as a visionary and a philosopher, and author of the bestselling novel 'The Transhumanist Wager', is titled:

“AI Day Will Replace Christmas as the Most Important Holiday in Less Than 25

The following is the final paragraph from the above mentioned article.

“One thing is for sure, to the human species, the birth of an advanced artificial intelligence will become far more important than the birth of Christ. Christmas, if it survives at all, will be relegated to just another commercial and cultural holiday that superstores and big business thrive on. Meanwhile, reasonable people will celebrate AI Day, the real moment in history the savior of civilization was born.”

Are we looking at 'Revelation 13' coming over the horizon? If AI, artificial intelligence, is the “savior of civilization” what does that make Christians who believe Jesus Christ is the Savior of civilization? Heretics?

“And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.”

Concerning Zoltan Istvan and the conclusion he postulates, the Bible says:

“Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man.” Romans 1:21-23

The brazen arrogance of Zoltan Istvan's pronouncement is reminiscent of the declaration made in the book of Jasher, chapter ten, a book mentioned twice in the Old Testament.

The story concerns the building of the Tower of Babel and the subsequent overthrow and dethronement of God:

“All these people and all the families divided themselves in three parts; the first said We will ascend into heaven and fight against him; the second said, We will ascend to heaven and place our own gods there and serve them; and the third part said, We will ascend to heaven and smite him with bows and spears; and God knew all their works and all their evil thoughts, and he saw the city and the tower which they were building.”
