Whoever Is Discerning

Charles Spurgeon said:

“Discernment is not simply a matter of telling the difference between what is right and wrong; rather it is the difference between right and almost right.”

There are web sites with vast numbers of followers which reveal astounding truths that may even be considered “scoops” but we have to be careful as they are at the same time highly critical of God in the Old Testament and Jesus being the way to be reconciled to God in the New Testament.

These sites often maintain a strong sense of “spirituality” but may be closely aligned with New Age philosophy or thinking. The spirituality will of course appeal to those who have an awakened spiritual need.

Equating churchianity with true Christianity it can be easy to see the appeal of these types of web sites. Again a quote from Charles Spurgeon:

“A time will come when instead of shepherds feeding the sheep, the church will have clowns entertaining the goats.”!

However, the closer one is to the truth while at the same time denying the truth of whom Jesus claimed to be, John 14:6, makes all this even more dangerous and leads to the well known verse in Matthew twenty-four, that if it were possible He, the antichrist would deceive the very elect.

One thing to ask ourselves is why these sites, with there phenomenal disclosures concerning not just the elite, but the spiritual entities empowering the elite ,are permitted to continue and propagate their views. Wouldn't these powerful entities wish to put a stop to their exposure?

Could it be that this exposure of powerful truths is tolerated, and possibly even encouraged because it serves a greater usefulness, the denial of God and salvation though Jesus Christ?

“In political jargon, useful idiot is a term for people perceived as propagandists for a cause whose goals they are not fully aware of, and who are used cynically by the leaders of the cause.” Wikipedia

One of the major arguments made against God in the Old Testament by such sites is: how can a God of love order the annihilation of a complete group or race of people including women and children.

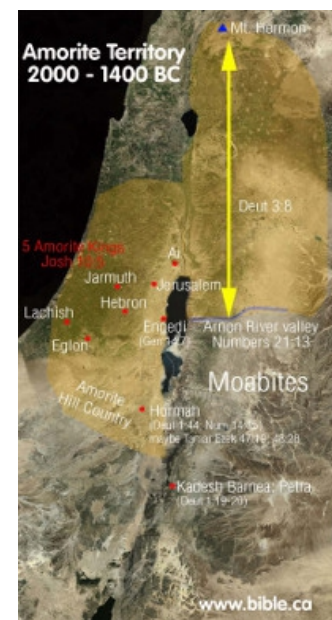

We have two possible ways to go on this question, either God did issue such condemnations or as Douglas Reed postulated in his magnum opus “The Controversy of Zion” he believed the Levites altered sections of the Old Testament.

We know this is possible in respect the redacting done to the Old Testament in regards to the changes made by the Masorettes between 600AD and 1000AD which we have published previously.

For the time being let us go with the belief that God did issue the decree that Moses and the Hebrews should annihilate a complete group of people as illustrated in

The Book of Numbers, Chapter 21:33-35 and Deuteronomy, Chapter 3:1-3

“And having returned, they went up the road that leads to Basan; and Og the king of Basan went forth to meet them, and all his people to war to Edrain. And the Lord said to Moses, Fear him not; for I have delivered him and all his people, and all his land, into thy hands; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst to Seon king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Esebon. And he smote him and his sons, and all his people, until he left none of his to be taken alive; and they inherited his land.

And we turned and went by the way leading to Basan; and Og the king of Basan came out to meet us, he and all his people, to battle at Edraim. And the Lord said to me, Fear him not, for I have delivered him, and all his people, and all his land, into thy hands; and thou shalt do to him as thou didst to Seon king of the Amorites who dwelt in Esebon.

And the Lord our God delivered him into our hands, even Og the king of Basan, and all his people; and we smote him until we left none of his seed.” The Book of Numbers, Chapter 21:33-35 and Deuteronomy, Chapter 3:1-3

Well, how does a God of love reconcile what would appear to be a conundrum at best and a contradiction at worst.

Something about the Amorites of whom Og was king from the books of Jubilees and the Syriac Apocalypse of Baruch:

"According to the Book of Jubilees (xxix. [9] 11), "the former terrible giants, the Rephaim, gave way to the Amorites, an evil and sinful people whose wickedness surpasses that of any other, and whose life will be cut short on earth." In the Syriac Apocalypse of Baruch (lx.) they are symbolized by "black water" on account of "their black art, their witchcraft and impure mysteries, by which they contaminated Israel in the time of the Judges."

It should also be noted in Deuteronomy, chapter two, that Moses made a peaceable appeal to king Seon another king of the Amorites to allow him and the Hebrews to pass through his land on the way to Canaan and that they would pay for food and water and then leave. It was after this the Hebrews were attacked by king Seon and then by king Og.

There is a book called “The Lost Book of King Og. We can not vouch for the authenticity of this book, you would have to decide that for yourself. Below is an introduction to the book and excerpts from the book itself. We do want to caution you that the book is not pleasant to read and very blasphemous. If you are highly sensitive you may want to consider skipping this section.

The Lost Book Of King Og – CHAPTER 7

*Editor’s note:

This is the only Aramaic translation of the remaining chapter from THE BOOK OF KING OG the Giant. This text (which was lost/hidden because of the historic, calculated move by Pope Pius XII to separate it from the Manichean Book of the Giants) has been the source of great speculation within the research halls of the Vatican for centuries.

Originally, both Latin and Aramaic versions existed. The Latin version was censored and destroyed by the Catholic Church in the 5th century CE.

In fact, the Catholic Church originally posted the following words of anathema in regards to THE BOOK OF KING OG and other forbidden texts:

With Constantine’s systematic destruction of non-Christian texts in and around 326 CE, and the following Gelasian Decree of the 5th century CE, knowledge and/or reproduction of Og’s verses were rendered impossible.

Dated in or around 1400 BCE.

CHAPTER 7 – The Final Words of King Og

<sup>1</sup>Did you think, O [corrupt worm] of [Israel], that I did not stand above [. . . the great wa[ter.] in the [mountains]? <sup>2</sup>You who have never touched the sky or stood two cubits over another man. My meditation [my dreams] are your [. . .][death]. Baal will see to it, worm. Behold, I am Og, the largest man in the land. What can you possibly do to me? Are you [prepared to die]?

<sup>3</sup>I have watched you[. . .] crawl into the [light] as a corrupt [fecal worm]. I have watched your mother Egypt [. . .] eat your young. 𐤃 watch now and I [ponder] is this why you now war with me, O [worm] of Israel? [You have sl]ain my neighbor in Sihon. Baal will avenge [. . .]. Both Baal and Baalat will [. . .empower me. . .] to sever the corrupt [worm] with force. 𐤃[ . . .your false god. . .your weak [little] men. . .] I Og spit upon your warriors who trail like ants [. . .beneath. . .][feces]. I [wipe] the spittle from my beard. I will arise when ready. [...] [the strength in] but one arm will [break] the [horn] of [Israel].

𐤃Are the tales of my [exploits] not [traveling] to your itching ears O corrupt [fecal worm] of [Israel]? Of my power [. . .how I did battle. . .] against the [unspeakable] [monsters] in the renowned fields alongside my [Watcher] and [Nephilim] parentage? [. . .how we moulded to murder. . .] How we turned our wrath [. . .mercy. . .a foreigner. . .] where the old world [monsters] stood. Stupid, [fecal worm]. Stupid corrupt [fecal worm]. Your ox-like stupidity tires me to [sleep].

𐤃O bitter, [blackened] corrupt [fecal worm]. Did not my [royal] [sorceresses] of Baal dance and prophesy of your arrival? Have we in Bashan not dreamed of your [murder]? My soothsayers tell of our [. . .victory. . .worship. . .sacrifices. . .]. My priests speak of [sorcery and perversion] Baal has spoken [. . .] of when I will [tear] the [child skull] of the corrupt [fecal worm] Moses from his soft body and [. . .] hold it over Bashan as [. . .blood sign to Baal]. Your barren women will sing my praises. My dream needs no interpretation.

𐤃How will I [murder] [. . .] corrupt one? [. . .] [as [a] dog. . .torn by a bull at the slaughter]. Should I lift [an entire [. . .] mountain [of earth] over my head [. . .]? Is not [Baal the god] of this [earth] I live in? The kingdom [. . .] supreme Baal has thousands of [. . .] answers to [. . .the pathetic] [fecal] [insect sized] god [. . .] [Israel]. Come here, that I might b[ind you with] cords [empowered by] Baal.

𐤃[. . .How many . . .] castaways have you killed, since your [insect sized] god told you not to kill? Hypocrite. [. . .the spirits of the sl[ain] complain about you and cry out. [. . .] Moses, you [blood drunk feaster] upon feces. Like a cowardly [child] with gift toys [you run] from the [skirts] of your mother Egypt to me, that we may do [battle]? I will grind your [bones]. I will [eat] all of your [fingers] to the stump. [. . .great fear] shall seize you and you shall fall upon your face.

<sup>11</sup>Corrupt [little worm] Moses. My spies have told me [. . .your. . .] army, and their [. . .worship. . .] for any god but yours [. . .your murder(ous). . .] Of your time in Egypt. Of your [. . .commandments. . .of laws] your barbarism and insanity all in the name of your [fecal][insect-sized] god.

Also remember Og was the last of the Raphaim. The progeny of the fallen angels, Watchers, and human woman of whom the Bible has nothing good to say but condemnation.

Is it possible the Og and the Amorites, all of them, had absolutely no redeeming qualities what so ever? This is in fact a criticism J.R.R. Tolkien was questioned about after writing the “Lord of the Rings” that amongst all of the Orcs there was not a one that had a single redeeming quality.

From a discussion from a web site discussing this issue: “Orcs the only certainty is that they were corrupted versions of an existing race, which answers your question: Orcs cannot be good, ever.

“But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption.” 2 Peter 2:12

Would the material presented justify God condemning an entire group of people? King David in referring to Og's destruction in Psalms 135:11 and 136:20 counts it as one of many great victories for the nation of Israel.

And we shouldn't forget Armageddon where the "the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs." Revelation 14:20 By a God of love? 1John 4:8

We are now going to segue from the Old Testament to Hebrews eleven in the New Testament. Hebrews, chapter eleven, is often referred to as God's Hall of Fame. In verse thirty it talks about the destruction of Jericho and verse thirty-one talks about the faith of the harlot Rahab.

"By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days.

By faith the harlot (prostitute, whore) Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace."

How could someone of such dubious character be a "member" of God's Hall of Fame. The above verse tells you why, faith.

"Now when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying,

This man,(Jesus) if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she is a sinner." Luke 7:39.

But what was it that gave Rahab the faith to receive the spies with peace and to believe in the God of the Hebrews. "It has been widely stated by archaeologists that the inhabitants of Jericho were moon worshipers".

The book of Joshua, chapter two, makes it clear what it was that inspired Rehabs faith in the true God of the Hebrews.

"For we have heard that the Lord God dried up the Red Sea before you, when ye came out of the land of Egypt, and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond Jordan, to Seon and Og, whom ye utterly destroyed. And when we heard it we were amazed in our heart, and there was no longer any spirit in any of us because of you, for the Lord your god is God in heaven above, and on the earth beneath. Joshua 2:10-11

It was the testimony of what God had done for the Hebrews including the utter destruction of King Og and the Amorites that inspired Rehabs faith and put her in God's hall of fame.

"But as the heaven is distant from the earth, so is my way distant from your ways, and your thoughts from my mind." Isaiah 55:9
